Being President of AAWD was definitely one of my greatest honors. I have supported and given to this organization since I was a student. I am very blessed and humbled to have served as President. Celebrating 100 years of AAWD is fabulous and although the country hasn't been able to be together due to COVID I know we will meet again and celebrate when things open back up. I think of all the women "grandmothers" who paved the way so that I have this opportunity to be a dentist, to own my practice, to balance motherhood and dentistry.

Even with this rich history we still have obstacles and hurdles in our way. We are still not always on an equal playing field so my words to women in dentistry for the next 100 years is to keep advancing. Do not let up! Remember the women who got us to this point and have allowed you the career you love, advance it forward so that in another 100 years it will be you that they will be remembering for the doors you opened and the lives changed.

Aspen Dental hosts contest where winners were honored with a complimentary AAWD membership. Congratulations, Dr. Lau and Dr. Roehm!

It pays to learn!

It ALWAYS pays to learn (says the guy with 3 degrees, a diploma, and a certificate) but today I'm happy to announce the winners of #AspenDental's 8,000th Credit Earned contest. The two winners completed free CE courses at <https://AspenDentalCE.com> at the same time and pushed the total number of credits awarded into the 8,000s.

Dr. Kate Lau completed "Secrets to Improving Endodontic Access" and earned 1 CE credit, a $250 Amazon gift card, and a year of membership in the American Association of Women Dentists.

Tim Roehm, DMD #UPitt '21 completed "To Change or to Repair: How to Treat What's Coming" and earned 1 CE credit, a $250 Amazon gift card, and a donation was made to the #AAWD in his name.

<https://AspenDentalCE.com> is available nationwide and for free for any member of the dental community. Keep an eye out for our 10,000th credit contest!

Will your malpractice respond to claims related to administering the COVID-19 vaccine?

YOU'VE GOT THEIR ARM.
WE'VE GOT YOUR BACK!

IF YOUR STATE DENTAL BOARD SAYS YES, WE SAY YES!

The Professional Protector Plan® for Dentists has a broad definition of Professional Services where coverage is provided for services that you are licensed and trained to perform as a dentist. Should your state dental board determine that administering the COVID-19 vaccine is within the scope of practice for dentistry, this service would fall within the PPP's definition of Professional Services. The PPP stands behind thousands of dentists across the country. Contact your local agent so you're backed by us, too.
